Death of Mr. Paschal Willis.

The subject of this notice had been in declining health for several months, and his death, which occurred last Friday morning, was not a surprise to his family and friends.

He was a native of Adair County, the major portion of his life having been spent at his late residence, on Glenfork, six miles from Columbia. For many years he was an active farmer and trader, and was well known throughout this section of the State. Mr. Willis was four times married and leaves quite a number of children, all grown.
He also survived by his last wife.

The deceased was about 80 years old, and was an honorable and respected citizen. He was the grandfather of Messrs. E. T. and M. O. Willis, this city.

On Tuesday, the 30th day of October, near the noon hour, Mr. L. V. Hall and Miss Lillie Powell, a deserving young couple of this city, were married at the residence of the bride's mother, Mrs. Laura Powell. The rites were solemnized by Rev. E. W. Barnett in the presence of the family and a few intimate friends. Immediately after the ceremony the couple drove to Greensburg, spending a few days in that city. Mr. Hall is a young business man of Columbia, and is very much liked by the many friends he has made since becoming a resident of this place. Miss Powell was popular with her associates, all of whom are glad that she has been united with the man of her choice.

It is our information that the Crockett boys, serving life sentences in the penitentiary have not been pardoned.
For more than a year friends have been working to secure their release, but up to last Saturday night no par-

A large crowd heard Mr. Jas. Gar-night. He made a splendid speech, which was the means of all the Democrats in the neighborhood being at the polls yesterday.

have been a number of deaths. The Hallowe'en comes on the 31st of October. It is all Saints' Day, the time of all other times when supernatural influences prevail. It is generally observed by young people in the large cities who engage in dancing and other kinds of amusement. In smaller towns the boys generally celebrate the day by removing gates, laying obstructions across sidewalks, etc. Here in Columbia, which is neither a city nor a small town, the girls meet, tell ghost stories and see all manner of visions.

On this eventful day quite a number of young ladies were entertained by Miss Pauline Cabell. There were many frightful hobgoblin tales related, and ghosts of all sizes and colors put in their appearance. It was an occasion which at times brought both melancholy and happy reflections. At a late hour a delightful lunch was served.

The following is from the Moody, (Texas) Courier:—"Felix Baker, of Amundsville, Kentucky, arrived here this week. He is looking at the country. His brother, Asa, and wife arrived here ten days ago. Mr. Baker is the man the Courier referred to a month ago as having a most wonderful memory. He said when he met the editor: "This is Squire Hundley; I saw you twenty years ago last August, at a picnic on West Fork. You were talking to a school teacher. Perhaps you have forgotten her name but I have not." We recalled the time and place referred to, but could never have given the exact date, and have no recollection of meeting him on that occasion. We know our memory is poor, but Mr. Baker presumes too much along that line if he thinks this editor can not remember a good looking young lady more than twenty years."

Rev. W. P. Gordon, the new pastor of the Methodist church, this city, preached his first sermon in Columbia, for this Conference year, last Sunday.
Large congregations heard him both morning and evening, pronouncing him an intelligent and entertaining young minister. At the evening services there was some disturbance in the rear part of the building which greatly annoyed many in the congregation. To the credit of Columbia the parties who engaged in misconduct do not live here.

We hope the parties who persisted in laughing and talking while the services were in progress, will not again repeat the conduct. We do not believe it is down right meanness. It is thoughtlessness. Be manly, be womanly.

Mr. H. M. Kemp, of this city, who has been a trusted and popular salesman for Mr. W. L. Walker, tendered his resignation a few days ago and accepted a position with Green & Son, wholesale dealers in boots and shoes, Louisville. Mr. Kemp is a young man of excellent habits, with fine business qualifications, and has many friends throughout this section of the State who will take pleasure in dealing with him. He has an extra good line of samples, and will take the road this week.

Mr. M. H. Marcum, who is an experienced man in the business, now has charge of the Conover Hotel, and is having a good run of trade. Mr. Marcum is not only an experienced hotel man, but he is a courteous, polite gentleman. The reputation he made some years ago while running a hotel in Columbia has not been forgotten, and it is believed he will do a splendid business. He is an excellent provider, and his estimable wife knows how to prepare provisions.

It is reported here that Mr. Frank Dohoney was stabbed in the neck at Milltown last Tuesday by Winston Rodgers. It is said that the trouble came up over Mr. Dohoney's and Mr.
Rodgers' boys.

Last Monday was county court. A very good crowd of people in town and business about up to the average on public days. In the afternoon Hon.
Rollin Hurt entertained four hundred people at the court-house, making the closing Democratic speech of the county campaign.

Mrs. Laura Powell, of this place, sold her farm, lying on Glenfork, six miles from Columbia, last Friday, to Capt.
J. S. Chapman for $4200. Last year Capt. Chapman sold out and removed to Barren county. It is now said that he will return to Adair. We will be glad to again have him and family with us.

The many friends of Miss Bessie Coffey gave her a surprise last Monday evening. The young people were ripe for a social, and knowing that Miss Bessie was cozily situated, they concluded, without giving her notification, to partake of her hospitalities.

Accordingly, a dozen or two went out and happily spent several hours.

We especially invite the ladies to call and see our new dress goods, trimmings, neck wear, jackets, capes and furs.

No trouble to show you.

An interesting revival has been in progress at Pleasant View Church for the past two weeks. Revs. Cave, Frock and Hart have been doing the preaching, and the whole neighborhood has been struck with a religious interest. Up to Sunday night there had been twenty-five conversions, and at this writing there are many seekers.

Mr. Brack Massie, of Cave Valley, was in Columbia Monday, and reported the health of his community good.
There are a few buildings going up in Cave Valley and the merchants are having a fair trade. E. Rice & Co., shipped a car-load of hogs to Louisville last week and sold them at $4.00 per hundred. Farmers in the vicinity of the Valley are busy gathering corn.

The Baptist people of this community have not as yet employed a pastor to take the place of Rev. E. W. Barnett. They are looking around, and as we understand, are in no particular hurry; that is they will not make a hasty engagement, and when a pastor is employed they hope to select one that will give entire satisfaction. Mr.

Barnett was the pastor six years and it will take a pastor to fill his place.

Mr. Rollin Hurt, of this city, who spent last week in Greensburg, informs the News that Mr. Wood Lewis has about completed his new brick storehouse, and that it is a magnificent building, a credit to Greensburg and Green county. He noticed some other improvements, showing that the citizens of that enterprising town were moving upward and onward. Greenburg is a historic town, some of Kentucky's greatest men having been born and reared there.

are almost heart broken.

All the old citizens of Adair county remember Capt. Jack Squires, who died in the city of Mexico during our trouble with that country. He was an uncle of Dr. J. H. Grady, of this place, who has in his office the leather trunk used by his uncle, and also the spur he rode with while in Mexico. The trunk is probably seventy-five or eighty years old, but it is in a good state of preservation.

A few weeks ago Coffey Bros., this city, bought a beautiful sorrel gelding, 4 years old, 15 one and a half inches high from J. M. Howell, Greensburg.
He is a perfect model, and a smooth, quick stepper. Last Monday they bought of Will Griffin a perfect match in color, years and action to the above named horse. The two make the fan-ciest double team ever owned in Adair county.

Our readers will remember that some time ago Mr. Creed Hood and wife transferred to James T. Todd, a certain tract of land for a half interest in what was thought to be an onyx mine. What was supposed to be onyx proved to be a substance that had been formed by water. Mr. Hood brought suit for his land in the circuit court and lost. The case went up, and last week the judgment of the lower court was sustained.
